Design brief and aim

To put together, for a dynamic couple and a lively toddler, their favourite colors in an interesting pattern and a huge kitchen reflecting a similar concept.

How this was accomplished

The design concept amalgamates the modern with a retro touch, to add some zest. The huge kitchen has a simple layout for ease of working. The overhead cabinets are in purple acrylic for a color pop, whereas the lower cabinets are silver-grey to complement the steel grey granite counter top. Retro-printed grey tiles for the dado add style to this modern yet simple kitchen, fabricated skilfully by Ambient kitchens.

Happily ever after

The space reflects the style of the user in its interesting design theme.
